The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullnes of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts, The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

J. W. DICKERSON,
Ch'n Dem. Co. Com.

ELOPEMENT IN HIGH LIFE.—The English and Irish papers of recent date contain the following account of an elopement of an Irish marquis with the wife of a Government official in high life:

A most extraordinary piece of scandal in high life has just come to light, namely, the elopement of the wife of Captain Vivian with the Marquis of Waterford. The gallant Captain is a lord of the Treasury and member of parliament for Truro. For some time past the lady's name has been mentioned in connection with her partner of her flight, and her disappearance was not wholly unexpected.

She left home on Monday morning, alleging that she intended to proceed to Brigton to see her mother, and would return the same evening. As, however, she failed to make her appearance, Captian Vivian proceeded to the Victoria Station, and there ascertained that Marquis of Waterford and Mrs. Vivian had, the previous morning, taken tickets for Paris by way of Dover accompained by a friend. He followed them to the French Capital, and soon found the object of his search at a well known hotel. Mrs. Vivian heard of her husband's arrival, and locked herself up in an inner chamber.

Captain Vivian, however, succeeded in obtaining assistance and burst open the doors. He then ascertained that Mrs. Vivian had attempted to commit suicide by swollowing chloroform. The quantity taken was not however, sufficient to cause more than partial insensibility. Captain Vivian is understood to have implored his wife to return for the sake of her children, of whom there are four, but she premptorilly refused, although her husband assured her that her escapade should be kept a profound secret.

The lady, however remained firm in her determination not to return to the shelter of her home, but pleaded that she might be allowed to retain her youngest child. This request Captain Vivian declined to comply with, and returned to London without having encountered the Marquis of Waterford.

The latter has, it is believed, caused a a communication to be made to Capt. Vivian, that when the Judge Ordinary of the Divorce Court shall have dissolved the legal ties which now prevent his marrying Mrs. Vivian, he will, as a man of honor, make her the only compensation in his power. Meanwhile, Captain Vivian has left town, and will not return to his place in the House of Commons until his presence is required for the division on the second reading of the bill for the abolition of the Irish Church.

The doctor against whom a verdict of $10,000 for breach of promise was recently given in Warren County, Ohio, converted all his property into ready cash, and as soon as the verdict was given, he disappeared. This was the case in which the defense was that the promise of marriage with a pretty milliner, could not be carried out, because she was of very remote African descent.

Hydrophobia has been successfully treated with iodine by Dr. Mussey, of Chicago. Of the eight cases promptly treated with iodine, not one resulted fatally, were any decisive symptons of hydrophobia subsequently manifested. In four of the cases it was probable that the wounds were from animals really rabid, and not in the other four.

A brute in Rochester, N. Y., was lately arrested and sent to prison for six months, and fined $50, for cruelly beating hisd aughter, an infant seven months old.

HOW A CONVICT WON A PARDON.

"Will you never give up those trips, Terrence? It is lonely staying here nights, and besides, I am fearful that some one will break in and rob the house and murder us all. I never say my prayers and go to bed without trembling for my own life and the lives of the children," and the little woman hung upon the arm of the strong man, and begged him with tearful eyes to give up his wandering life (that of a peddler) and settle down.

"As soon as I have gathered enough together to buy me a bit of ground, or what is better still, to emigrate to America, that blessed land of freedom, where, as the song says, 'there's bread and work for all,' and the bright sun is always shining, I'll gladly give up carrying the pack, for it's no easy work at the best."

"Only think of the money you have in the house now, husband, dear. Surely there is enough to take us across the sea—you and I and the children, and Bridget too, if she likes to go."

Bridget was the servant girl who helped the wife of the peddler, and was her sole companion when he was away, and her eyes snapped with perfect delight when she heard the proposition. But she said nothing, and the master continued.

"It is true for you, Kathleen, that I have a matter of a hundred pounds or so, which I shall leave for you to take care of; and if I have luck this time I promise you to remain at home or go to America, bless her. It's a good friend she has been to Ireland, and many is the poor soul she has kept from starving. So take care of the children, Kathleen—you and Bridget—until I come back," and he kissed his wife and bright-eyed, curly-headed babies, gave Bridget the good-bye, shouldered his pack, and strode stoutly away, whistling merrily.

Terrence O'Brien was a peddler by profession, and what was called a forehanded man. His family consisted of the good wife, two children—a boy of scarcely three years, and a babe—and the girl of all work, Bridget. At the start of his married life he had rented a little cottage that stood in a lonely, out-of-the-way place; although he had increased his stores, he had retained possession of it on the score of economy.

A brave, athletic man, and one who feared nothing human, he could not understand the terror of his wife, Kathleen—in fact, gave them little thought. Besides, robbery was a thing almost unknown among the peasantry, and who would ever dream of his having a large amount in his wretched cabin? But it was not his custom to do so. Usually he deposited it in a secure place. So he gave the matter no further thought than to promise himself that this should be his last journey, (if he did as well as he anticipated) and tugged around, flattering the rosy-cheeked girls into purchasing finery with which to dazzle the eyes of their beaux at the next fair.

His heart was light, his form strong: he had none of the fears of his wife, and was looking forward joyfully to the time when he would have a little home, "a pig and a patch of pratties," that would belong to himself alone, and of which no hard-hearted or non-resident landlord could claim control, although he would willingly pay his tithes to the church.

With Kathleen, however, it was far different. As the night began to draw near and the winds to creep around the corners of the cabin and whistle down the chimney with a mournful sound, she bethought herself of the sovereigns her husband left, and taking the bag in which they were kept from the little cupboard over the fire-place, she tucked it between the beds, remarking at the same time to Bridget, "that no one would ever think of looking for it there."

"No," was the reply: "it would be a smart man sure, that would be looking under the children to find gold."

The tea over, for they were early sleepers and early risers, the girl requested that she might be allowed to pass the evening with her sister, who resided about a mile distant, and the anxious wife and mother, although sorely loth to do so, at length consented, insisting upon an early return.

"But you will be back early, Bridget?"

"Av course I will that same. But don't be after fretin'," and the girl departed.

The lonely woman busied herself as best she might until a late hour, but the girl did not return. In a fever of anxiety, she watched until about sixty minutes had passed, although it appeared to her like a half a day; and then, considering it useless to remain up longer, sought her own pillow, after commending herself to Him who is the protector of the widow and the fatherless. But she had not closed her eyes before there was a loud rap at the door.

"Is that you, Bridget?" she asked hopefully.

'No," was the answer, and her heart sunk like lead within her. "No· I am a stranger—have lost my way, and you must let me in."

"I cannot—I cannot! I am a poor lone woman. I dare not let you in."

"You need have no fear. As there is a God in Heaven I will not harm you. I am an escaped convict—an innocent one—and as you have mercy in your heart, open the door."

When was such an appeal made to an Irish heart in vain? An escaped convict and wanting succor! That is a talisman to open every door—to have the best potato or piece of bread forced into the hungry mouth. Yes, it is truly the open seasame to an Irish heart, and it operated so in this case.

The woman arose opened the door, gave the fugitive food, and having again received the assurance that he would do her no harm, but on the contrary protect her, and having also seen him stretch upon the floor before the remnant of the peat fire, she again sought the side of her sleeping children.

But even then she was not allowed to rest. At first her fears kept her awake. Then came a loud rap for admission, ann both she and her stranger visitor arose.

"Is this a part of your gang?" she asked in a trembling whisper.

"I call Heaven to witness," he answered solemnly, "that such is not the case. Ask them what they want."

She did so, and was told that they knew she had money in the house and were determined to have it.

"Tell them," whispered the stranger, "that you have a friend with you, and it will be dangerous for them to enter."

"I have a friend here," she said, going close to the door, "a man who will protect me, and you had better not try to get in."

"I know better," laughed a female voice that of Bridget, the servant girl; "I know there is no one in the house except yourself and the children."

"What shall I do—shall I do?" asked the poor woman, wringing her hands.

"Tell them again," whispered the stranger, "that I have pistols, and will shoot the first one that dare step his foot within the door. God help me! I would not have blood on my hands; but I promised to protect you with my life, and I will. Warn them once more.

"Bridget," shouted Mrs. O'Brien, "the friend I have here has pistols, and will certainly kill you. I warn you to go away."

Again the bold, bad laugh of the servant girl rang out, and her voice could be heard urging them on.

"It's only talking they are. Divil a one is there in the cabin but the children. Break down the door and done with it. I tell you there is more than a hundred pounds hid between the beds."

"Stand back," whispered the convict to his hostess, "their blood be upon their own heads."

Scarcely had the words been uttered before heavy blows fell upon the door and made it tremble upon its hinges. The self-appointed protector stood a little to one side, calm and firm. In either hand he held a pistol, and his manner showed that he was no stranger to their use.

"Down with the door," shouted Bridget, "or else stand aside and give me the ax."

A shower of heavy blows and it fell. The false servant girl entered and dropped dead with a bullet in her brain. The foremost of the men met the same fate, and the others fled. They had had quite enough of bloodshed.

To leave the helpless woman thus, was not to be thought of by the kind-hearted stranger; and though prison or transportation stared him in the face, he comforted her as well as possible, straightened the corpses, and then hastening to the nearest magistrate, told the entire story, not even denying who and what he was.

The facts were too evident to bear even questioning, and as a reward for his bravery the convict was pardoned—subsequently found to have been convicted innocently, and when the husband and father returned, was readily persuaded with his family to emigrate to America.

Now, in one of the western States, Terrence O'Brien has a house by the side of a beautiful river, and not far from it is another where the once fugitive convict has a wife and children of his own to protect, and both will give an heir-loom to their descendants, the little but true story of how a pardon was won.

SELAH.—The translators of the Bible have left the Selah, which occurs so often in the Psalms, as they found it, and of course the English reader often asked his minister or some learned friend what it means. And the minister or learned friend has most often been obliged to confess ignorance, because it is a matter in regard to what the most learned have by no means been of one mind. The Tagrums and most of the Jewish commentators give to the word the meaning of eternally, forever. Kimchi regards it as a sign to elevate the voice. The authors of the Septuagent translation appear to have regarded it as a musical or rhythmical note. Herder regards it as indicating a change of tone Marheson, as a musical tone, equivalent perhaps to the word repeat.

According to Luther and others it means silence. Gesenius explains it to mean "let the instrument play and the singers stop." Wocher regards it as equivalent to sorium corda—up my soul! Sommer, after examining all the seventy-four passages in which the word occurs, recognizes in every case 'an actual appeal or summons to Jehova.' They are calls for aid and prayers to be heard, expressed either with entire distinctness, or if not in the imperative. "Hear, Jehova!" or "Awake Jehova!" and the like, still earnest addresses to God that He would remember and hear, &c.

Mr. Aird, a noted London barrister, was a printer, so, too, was Douglas Jerrold; John Kitto, the editor of the Pictorial Bible, was by trade a shoemaker; Dr. Livingstone was a factory operative; John Cassell, a journeyman carpenter; and Wm. Gifford, the founder of The Edinburg Review, first a cabin boy and then a shoe-maker's apprentice.

Larmantine was asked by a friend if he did not spend to much money in advertising. "No," was his reply "advertisements are absolutely necessary. Even divine worship (le bon dieu) needs to be advertised. Else whhat is the meaning of Church bells?"

HOUSE AND FARM.

Why Cut Feed is Best. At a recent meeting of the Farmer's Institute Club of New York, the old question of cutting feed was pretty thoroughly discussed. N. C. Meeker, the agricultural editors of the Tribune, observed that nothing could be gained by cutting what was not good feed before that operation. Some seem to think that by cutting wheat straw and the buts of corn stalks, and adding meal to induce animals to eat the mixture, they gain, but the idea is a delusion, for something cannot come out of nothing.

Dr. Trimple, theoretical farmer, also remarked that it was absurd to think one can save feed by putting it into another shape without adding more nutriment. If a horse needs twenty pounds of norishment in uncut hay, he could not see how ten pounds of cut hay, would answer. Whereupon the editor of the Rural New Yorker replies to these scientific farmers and hits the nail squarely on the head.

What is the truth in this question which causes the doctors to disagree so widely? Simply this: Cutting fodder does not add more nutriment to it, but changes its mechanical condition, and enables stock to consume in less time and thus have more for rest and digestion. This is a valuable consideration for hard worked horses, but not as great a one for animals that chew their cud. Again, cut hay or straw slightly moistened and sprinkled with ground grain is much more palatable, and stock prefer it to unmixed and whole food, and maintain more vigorous appetites than if confined to the unprepared food. A baked potato, with salt, pepper and butter, is a dish that a hungry king would'nt turn from; but a beggar would dispise the meal if obliged to devour the potato first, then the salt, and the pepper and butter. It is the faculty of mixing the food right that tickles the palate.

Every observing farmer that has tried the experiment knows that his stock prefer cut feed and ground grain mixed and moistened, to the same article fed whole. Though there is no more nutriment in food thus prepared, yet the animal system gets more out of it, and less is passed off in the excrements. The question of economy in the matter must be decided by the value of labor as compared with the value of food in each locality where stock is fed.

The Future of Wheat. The Chicago Tribune brings good reasons to the support of the argument that the price of wheat will be much lower durin theg coming year, and it concludes its article by advising holders "to prepare to look their losses in the face as gracefully as may be, and decide to let go, lest the chance of selling be denied in toto.—The supply is too abundant to admit of a scarcity, and sellers to the great world of consumers are too numerous to admit of the holders being able to dictate in the matter of prices."

A correspondent of the Western Farmer advises planting sweet corn in hills, instead of drills—the rows to be 3½ feet apart and hills one foot apart. He recommends feeding it to cattle, "ears and all," and warrants more butter than can be made from grass feed as the result.

The Gardner, London, says: "Earthing up potatoes diminishes the product and retards the ripening of the tubers. Long experiments in England have proved this fact—that hilling up potatoes may reduce the crop one fourth.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman says that if a sheep or calf is covered with a leather spread or thick blanket, and a tobacco smoke be make under this covering, every tick or nit will be destroyed in half an hour or less.

A NASHVILLE druggist has invented a rat paint made of a preparation of phosphorus. You first catch the rat then you paint him. The little daughter of old Hackett, of Minot, Me., owns a Leghorn hen. Recently the little girl put her pet into the lap of her mother, whereupon Bibble immediately swallowed a gold pin that had become unfastened from Mrs. H.'s dress. To save the pin and the life of the pet, Mr. H. cut open the crop of the hen, extracted the pin and then closed up the wound. The hen recovered and can lay eggs now.

The New York Sunday Courier says:—"An old New York Circus man, whose joints have grown too stiff for the ring, proposes to teach "The Art of Training Animals" including everything from "Lions to Fleas," for the modest sum of $1,000. The pupil, we believe, is expected to furnish his own fleas."

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, April 30, 1869.

MUTE.

Oh! no, they never mention it! We mean the fact that J. M. Russell, Jacob Barndollar and A. J. Cline, the Whig delegates who represented Bedford and Somerset in the Convention of 1839. The radical newspapers of this legislative district are mute as mice on that subject. They affect to be delighted with the votes of Stutzman, Weller and Longenecker to undo the work of those old Whigs, but we really think the editors quietly wish these three legislative worthies at the devil. It is the business, however, of these slaves to party leaders, to swallow any pill the latter may prescribe for them.—Nothing but tame and abject submission can be expected of them. But the masses of the radical party—are they slaves too?

THE PASTE-SLINGERS.

The twenty seven extra pasters and folders appointed by the late legislature are provided for in the appropriation bill at an expense of $20,000 to the tax-payers. Most of these fellows had a complete sinecure during the session, not performing any service at all. Some of the Radical newspapers protested very loudly aginst this outrage in the beginning. Among these was the Bedford Inquirer. Nothing more, however, is heard from these sources in regard to this matter. The iniquity has been accomplished, but the radical editors have nothing to say about it. Another election is approaching, and the fear is that some of the men who voted to pay these paste-slingers will be left at home. Cannot the Inquirer say just a word upon this subject?

DISINTEGRATION.

SENATOR SPRAGUE has made several speeches in the U. S. Senate, denouncing his party associates for their profligacy and corruption, and predicting the ruin of the country if they did not change their course. Senator Ross, of Kansas, and Senators Cameron and Scott, of this State, have also made speeches severely reflecting upon the appointments made by President Grant. Of course this is merely a show of honesty on the part of these men, and is not to be taken as evidence of sincere repentance of the folly and crime in which they have participated during the last eight years. But it shows the gradual but certain disintegration of the radical party. The downfall of that corrupt and rotten organization is approaching. Let it come.

THE POST OFFICE IMBROGLIO.—"DAD" APPOINTS HIS OWN MAN AND IGNORES THE PEOPLE.—SOMETHING ROTTEN IN DENMARK.—Maj. Daniel Washabaugh has been appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, as postmaster at this place, vice C. Loyer, resigned. Maj. Washabaugh is a competent man, and will, no doubt, discharge the duties of the office with care and fidelity. We find no fault with the character of the appointee. In fact as it is "none of our funeral," we stand back, "like a bound boy at a husking," and content ourself with the role of a serene looker-on. But as a faithful chronicler of passing events, it becomes our duty to inform an anxious and inquiring public as to the manner in which the appointment was made.

It will be remembered that on the 20th of February last, the supporters of President Grant, resi'ing within the range of delivery at the Bedford post office, held an election to indicate their choice for postmaster, at which A. S. Russell received 126 majority over all competitors. This result was considered decisive and conclusive, by the people of this neighborhood, and Messrs. Minnich and Arnold, who were candidates against Mr. Russell, gracefully and cheerfully submitted to the popular verdict. Everybody accepted Mr. Russell as the coming postmaster and there was general satisfaction with the choice thus made. The Inquirer of Feb. 26th said: "Mr. Russell has been clerk of the post office for some time and discharged the duties of the post to the satisfaction of all parties, and well deserves the high compliment paid him in the very flattering vote he received on Saturday. He will make an obliging and efficient officer." In this the Inquirer expressed the feeling of general satisfaction at the selection of Mr. Russell which pervaded its party. But, it so happened that the choice of the people was not the choice of "our" congressman. Mr. Cessna has interests to subserve in the future, and he did not think Mr. Russell the man to use in carrying out his ambitious projects. He determined that the appointment should not be made. True, the popular voice was loud and positive for Mr. Russell, but what cares Cessna for the people? He knows that heretofore he has always whipped them into the traces, and he thinks he will have no trouble in doing so again. They may kick for a while, but, reasons John, they'll be tame enough when they hear the crack of the party lash. If there be any who have no fear of the whip, he has some nice sugar-plums in the shape of promises of office, or money, to coax them into submission, and those who can be neither driven nor purchased, he hopes to gloze and cheat by soft words and pretty little white lies, such as he knows so well how to tell. Thinking thus, Mr. Cessna did not hesitate to disregard and set at defiance the expression of the popular preference in favor of Mr. Russell.

Of course, to those who call him to account for his conduct in this matter, he offers plenty of excuses. First, he says that Mr. Russell was an appointee of Ex-President Johnson, that he was recommended by Montgomery Blair and Senator Buckalew, and, therefore, Grant refused to appoint him. Suppose this to be true. how does it come that Mr. Cessna, or Mr. Grant, does not remove Mr. C. W. Ashcom from the office of Collector of Internal Revenue for this district? Mr. Ashcom was appointed by Andrew Johnson, upon the recommendation of Senator Buckalew, Judge Kimmell and other Democrats, yet Mr. Cessna and President Grant permit him to continue in office. Will Mr. Cessna please explain this little discrepancy? We know that this reason was not taken account of by Mr. Cessna, when he offered to get the post office for Mr. Russell, if the latter would pay $300 of his salary per annum to another party who was an applicant for the place. Another excuse offered by him, is, that Senator Cameron controlled the appointment and would not suffer Mr. Russell to be appointed. Certainly Mr. Cameron did not make choice of Maj. Washabaugh, for the Major has been known for years as an anti-Cameron man and was an office-holder under Curtin, the bitter enemy of Cameron. So that cock won't fight either, Dad. The fact of the business is, and John might as well own it, A. S. Russell could not be made a tool of by "our" Congressman, and, therefore, was cheated out of the office for which he was the almost unanimous choice of the people of this neighborhood.

Mr. Russell is and has always been a Republican of the straitest sect. We have nothing in common with him politically. But we know him to have been an efficient, impartial and obliging officer, and for that reason we should have been gratified at his appointment. Only this and nothing more. And now, if the "Republicans" of this neighborhood are satisfied that John Cessna shall set aside their own votes for postmaster and himself select one for them, we have no right to complain. It is their business, not ours. But we do say this, that if Seymour had been elected President and Judge Kimmell Congressman, and the Democrats of this neighborhood had elected a postmaster, it would have been worth the Judge's head, much as the Democrats like him, if he had disregarded such an election.

PERIODICALS.

THE OLD GUARD FOR MAY.—The following contents of this popular monthly, for May, are of a superior character. "Fifteenth Amendment," "Northern Delusions About Negroes." Article 12, under the caption of "Astounding Delusions and Falsehoods Employed by Wilberforce to Turn Loose the Negroes of the West Indies," places that "reformer" in his true light before the world. The "Construction of the Bible," by a Hebrew scholar, who has given years of labor to this great subject, is worthy of careful perusal. W. Gilmore Simms' story, "The Cub of the Panther." The balance of the literary matter, including the poetical department, is considerably above the late average of merit. The "Book Table" and the "Editor's Table are both full of capital reading; and, all in all, THE OLD GUARD for May makes a splendid number.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR MAY.—The steel plate for this number is an amusing scene called "The First Visit." The Colored Fashion Plate is unusually brilliant, and the leading wood cut represents boating on the beautiful Lake of Killkarney. The lovers of fancy work will find this department attended to. In light literature, this magazine has no superior. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving.)

THE RADICAL for May appears in unusually good season and brings unusually interesting contents. Its motto is, not expediency, nor popularity, but thoroughness. The present number contains articles by O. B. Frothingham, T. W. Higginson, C. K. Whipple, J. W. Chadwick, and others; also copious notes on Radical topics, Reviews of recent books. It is published at 25 Bloomfield street, Boston. Price $1 year; 35 cts. a number.

GODEY.—We could not do without this magnificent lady's book. Its monthly visits are as much longed for as the approach of gentle spring. We do not see how any lady can manage to get along without this unrivalled companion for the parlor. Address, L. A. Godey, Phila., Pa.

PETERSON.—The May number of this excellent "Ladies' National Magazine" has reached us, and is as full of interest to the fair sex as any of its predecessors. It is the cheapest ladies' monthly published. Only $2,00 a year. C. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

THE LITTLE PILGRIM.—We have received this excellent little monthly, and would say to parents, open your doors to him if you want a desirable companion for your children. Only 75 cents a year. Address T. K. Lippincott, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE NURSERY for May, has been received, and is full of beautiful designs and interesting reading matter for the little folks. Address John L. Shory, 13 Washington street, Boston, Mass. Price, only $1.50 a year.

THE ALTOONA VINDICATOR springs, like the Phœnix, from its ashes, fresh, bright and beautiful. We welcome its return to our table and hope that it may live long and prove profitable to its enterprising and worthy proprietor.

PHILADELPHIA.

[Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette.]

PHIL'A., April 22, 1869.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

The indications for that desired end are not very vast, as we look around. There is thunder everywhere just now, and we begin to think that Mr. Grant will be stirred up by others than his family circle and those who desire to serve their country in some fat office, very shortly. The method last proposed in Congress for settling the Alabama claims, if officially considered, will and can end in nothing short of war. And we believe the animus of the leaders of Congress is of that character, while the action thus far can be construed in no other light. With the annexation of Canada comes the revolution in Cuba in which the whole country sympathizes, and in which direction warlike demonstrations are now being made. It is known that a batch of cannon left this city to-day, and it is confidently believed, bound for the "ever faithful Isle." Here too Congress has given no uncertain sound. While all this is going on outside, there is a disturbing element within. A party in the interest of Imperialism has boldly flung out a paper in New York in advocacy of that revolutionary doctrine, and says that the present form of government means "lawlessness, corruption, insecurity to person and property, robbery, and civil war." Touching the attempt to suppress it by mob law it says: "We are not alone in this great city, and we know on whom to rely in our emergency." Takin' the above facts into consideration in connection with the unsettled condition of affairs in the Southern States, it does not look as though "peace" had yet lighted down on the Capitol.

OPERA BOUFFE.

Anything foreign will rage in this country; and when opera is Frenchified you may be sure that it will be patronized. We know nothing of Opera Bouffe by sight: for we believe it to be demoralizing. But there are those who do, and while their conscience is sufficiently elastic to allow them to attend, nevertheless concede that some subjects are of very doubtful propriety. Vice and impurity are here made attractive because they are covered with beautiful and gorgeous drapery (sometimes not enough of it) and worked up with music and dance. The Academy of Music has had crowded houses to witness such scenes lately. This same opera had a great run in Paris in 1867, and in that case we judge there is no want of abandon and freeness in it. As has been demonstrated, there are plenty here who take to it easily, and many who profess refinement and are extremely fastidious in matters of open vice and immorality, go there night after night and never know anything hurts them, on the principle, we presume, that to the pure all things are pure. The "Honi Soit" arrangement is very convenient in French Opera and Black Crook.

SUMMER

walked in on us last Sunday in full dress. And such delightful weather! From our window we can look over a wide scope where residences are embowered in a delicate green and yards begin to smile with vernal loveliness. In the meantime a warm, gentle rain has laid the dust and cheered nature all over, the sun comes out full and warm, and the birds have a fine concert. We feel young again, and almost wish for the times when we played marbles, rolled on the grass or went fishing and came back like all boys do——.

The flower market is in full array and every variety gladdens the eye and delights the nose. Delaware shad regale the taste, and are now becoming abundant. Hot houses are contributing radishes two at a bite in size, and the next thing we pray for is,

Lettuce have Peas.

Yours till then, LINDEN.

AGGRAVATED HOMICIDE.—Between 3 and 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon our city was thrown into a state of intense excitement by the killing of Mr. Jay Johnson, express messenger on the Cumberland & Pennsylvania Railroad, by a young man belonging to Lonaconing, in this county, named W. H. H. Duckworth. The homicide was committed near Krigbaum's on the line of this road, about three miles West of the city, and the facts, as far as we have been able to glean them, are about as follows: Duckworth had been in Cumberland during the day and had become considerably under the influence of liquor. He took passage on the train, which left this city at 3 o'clock, to go home. When some distance out, the conductor, Mr. Sheridan, while collecting the fares, approached Duckworth and demanded his passage money. The latter insisted that he had already paid, and refused compliance with the demand.—The conductor then resolved to put him off the train, and, with a view to do so, pulled the bell-rope signaling the engineer to stop, whereupon Duckworth threateningly drew a revolver, when Mr. Sheridan seized his arm and one barrel of the pistol was discharged, the ball striking Mr. Johnson, who was approaching, with fatal effect.—The homicide immediately jumped from the train, and, it is alleged, endeavored to escape, but was pursued by the passengers and train hands and captured by the passengers and train to the city, and slaver and victim were brought upon it. Mr. Johnson breathed his last a few moments after reaching here, and Duckworth was taken before Justice Gonger, who committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury, which is now in session.—Cumberland Alleganian.

A safe belonging to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, at Bellaire, Ohio, was broken open on Monday night and robbed of some $600 or $700. The robbers used stone-picks to pry open the safe, and performed their work so neatly and well that they got away with their plunder undiscovered.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

All accounts agree that, nothwithstanding the great severity of the winter in the West, the wheat crop never was known to be in a more promising condition. To be seen on our streets—"Whittier's Barefoot Boy."

The first of May is the time to take out United States licenses.

Remember Crouse's Resort. It is the place to get good cigars and tobacco.

The improvements on Juliana street are progressing, and when finished, fair Juliana will be fairer still.

All the monthly and weekly magazines and periodicals can be had at the Inquirer Book Store, at publishers' prices.

The impression seems generally to prevail that we will have plenty of fruit this year, as the buds have not been materially injured.

Artists who do landscaping in whitewash, and execute geometrical figures with soap and brushes, are extremely busy just now.

The weather just now is extremely fine and gentle spring in her "ethereal mildness" appears to have taken up her abode with us.

CESSNA'S LAST TRIUMPH.—"Our" Congressman is a giant when it comes to lifting postmasters. He has recently hoisted one at Scalp Level.

Family bibles, miscellaneous books, school books, wall paper, inks and stationery are sold at the Inquirer Book Store for less money than anywhere else.

SUICIDE.—A man by the name of Emrick, residing in Allegheny tp., Somerset co., hung himself the other day.

For Sale—a limited number of post offices. The voice of the people not heeded in this case. First-class wire pullers only permitted to bid. Apply to "our" member at once.

Quite a number of beautiful shade trees are being planted in different parts of the town. That is right.—Keep the ball rolling.

Bedford county is infested with horse thieves.—Hollidaysburg Register. That is certainly an item of news to our people.

Caterpillars have already made their appearance and will soon commence their ravages on the fruit trees. Now is the time to destroy these pests.

There are still a number of cross-road post offices in this county to be supplied with officers. Cannot "our" member "peddle" them out? Let him try his hand at once.

EDITORIAL VISITOR.—We had the pleasure, on Monday last, of a call from our friend, D. K. Wagner, Esq., of the Shippensburg News. David looks well, considering that he edits a radical paper and has just committed two-icide.

Cain Norris, the Freedman's Bureau pet, was convicted at Chambersburg, last week, and sentenced to thirty five years in the eastern penitentiary.—Article XV loses an enthusiastic supporter.

DIVIDE ET IMPERA.—This must be the motto of Congressman Dad. He divides his favors. The Bedford postoffice is to pay annually to another party besides the postmaster, the sum of $300. Such is the bargain.

WE are idebted to Senator Wallace for a copy of his speech on the extravgance in expenditures of the Radical administration of State affairs. It is an able argument against radical rule and should be read by everybody.

JANUS.—"Our" Congressman looks one way and rows another. He suggested that the "Republicans" of this neighborhood hold an election for postmaster, but acted contrary to the decision of the people at that election.

DROWNED.—Mrs. Mowry, an aged lady residing in Juniata township, was found dead in the Raystown branch of the Juniata, on last Friday morning. She left the house the night before, without the knowledge of its inmates, and it is supposed threw herself into the water and was drowned.

SEVERELY INJURED.—We are pained to learn that on last Saturday, our friend Jacob M. Barnett, of Coaldale, was so seriously injured, in the Wigton mines, by rock and coal falling on him, that his life is despaired of. His breast was almost completely crushed in.

AN EFFICIENT AGENT wanted for Bedford County, by one of the latest and best Life Insurance Companies in the Country. Address, DANIEL SHELLEY & SON, General Agents Manhattan Life Insurance Co., Harrisburg, Pa.

Now that the scribblers for the Inquirer are safely ensconced behind the strong walls of the GAZETTE BUILDING they amuse themselves by throwing paper balls with a recklessness that is truly astonishing. But the walls in the GAZETTE BUILDING are thick, and paper balls cannot penetrate them. So, go a head with your fun, boys. Nobody shall hurt you.

A man who has just subscribed for a Cambria county paper acknowledged to the editor if he had been a regular subscriber to his paper he would have been saved two hundred dollars. So it is. There are items and advertisements published in the county papers which if heeded would prove the turning point in many a man's career, and lead him on to fame and fortune.—And yet this advice is only worth $2 a year or four cents a week.

H. F. IRVINE has every variety of boots and shoes, queensware, glassware, groceries, notions, &c., usually kept by a first-class store, as is the "Regulator" establishment. Besides this, he sells at remarkably low prices, and none but the very best of goods.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On last Friday, as Michael Warmouth was erecting a shed for a brick yard, in Napier township, a heavy pole which he was about putting up, slipped and struck him on the head, inflicting such severe injuries that he lived but a short time. His remains passed through this place on Sunday, on their way to Marklesburg, Huntingdon county, where his family reside.

ANOTHER SHINGLE.—The Bedford Gazette swings from the Southern end of the Inquirer Building. They took that end from principle. The "Inquirer" of course stays North.—Inquirer.

Those fellows of the Inquirer are a stupid, selfish set. They pretend to admire our beautiful "shingle," but as their vision does not penetrate farther than to the end of their nasal organs, they cannot see that our sign swings from the GAZETTE BUILDING. As to the Inquirer "staying North," that is quite characteristic of that journal, for its editors took precious good care to "stay North" during the war. Swear the next witness.

ERRATA.—"Linden," our Philadelphia correspondent, sends a postscript to this week's letter, in which he pitches into us thusly:—

Mr. Devil, you played havoc with my last batch of paper squibs. You destroyed my sense, you spelled words wrong.

Mr. Proof Reader, did you lose your specs, when you had that flitting? Did you get knocked into pi? Well, as a moving is equivalent to one third of a fire, we will kindly subside, knowing your readers can easily make the corrections. L.

We most humbly beg Linden's pardon for making him say so many awkward things. Creating order out of the chaos and confusion incident to the removal of a printing office, and a rush of job work, precluded us from giving the paper the attention it should have had. Besides we were planting little onions and computing the interest on our Seven Thirties—we mean those we expect to get, some day. Rest assured, that Linden's sheets of ink-stained snow, shall not again be marred by the rude hand of a printer's "devil," or his ideas knocked into "pi" by a "speckless" proof-reader. Not if the court knows itself.

ARRESTED.—On Friday last we were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Huzzard, on a "writ of inquisition" and conveyed to the county jail. Like a good citizen, willing to serve our country in any capacity, we marched thither without a murmur. But imagine our surprise when we reached that place, that instead of facing iron bars and heavy manacles to secure our presence in durance vile, we beheld an array of ingenious attorneys, blandly smiling clerks, gentlemen of leisure, and others who had been called together to discuss the qualities of a dinner prepared by the good lady of the house. And such a feast! To use a hackneyed phrase, "the tables literally groaned" with good things thereon, which were prepared in a manner to tickle the palate of the most fastidious fellow. Being modest, we looked on, and can verify that all did justice to the cause before them, especially the lawyers who always like to be well fe(e)d. In conclusion—as the speechmakers have it—permit us to say that Mrs. Steckman knows how to get up a dinner and the Sheriff and his deputy know how to entice men to go to jail. Arrest us again!

THE MYSTERIOUS EGGS.—A laughable scene occurred in front of the Court House, on Monday afternoon last. Jerome Blitz, the great wizard, who can practice his wonderful feats in public as well as private, stopped at one of the huckster stands, and inquired the price of hard boiled eggs. "Two for five cents," was the answer. "Dirt cheap," says the little Magician, commencing to break one. By the time he had the shell broken, out pops a ten dollar greenback, which made the honest old huckster open his eyes as big as a saucer. "That's very strange," says he. So Jerome took up another egg and out pop two five dollar greenbacks. "There," says the Wizard, "this is certainly luck- guess I will take them all." "No, you don't," says the huckster. "I don't sell any more of them. I might as well have the money as you." Our old friend commenced breaking open the remainder of the eggs, but found no greenbacks. Such laughing and jumping was never before seen around the Court House.—Repository.

A CARD.—Since I became a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, some evil disposed persons have circulated a report that I supported John Cessna, for Congress, last fall, and that he had secured me the appointment to a lucrative office as a reward for such support. With those who know me, no denial is necessary, and those unacquainted with me, could easily satisfy themselves of the falseness of the charge by referring to the vote of our own township, where Mr. Cessna did not get a single Democratic vote! The charge is false and utterly without foundation. The appointment referred to was that of surveyor of distilleries, the emoluments of which amounted to about forty or fifty dollars, and was made by William McSherry, Esq., Democratic Assessor of Internal Revenue, for this district, without the knowledge or assistance of Mr. Cessna, or any one else, without any solicitation from me or my friends, and really against my wishes, as Mr. Hughes and other distillers, who urged me to accept, can testify. The annexed statement of Mr. McSherry himself proves the truth of what I have here said.

WILLIAM KEYSER.

LITTLESTOWN, March 18th, 1869.

I do hereby certify that on the 22nd of January A. D. 1869, I recommended Wm. Keyser, Esq., of Buena Vista, Bedford co., Penn'a, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as Surveyer of Distilleries for Bedford and Somerset counties, and that on the 29th of said month, he was appointed as such without the influence of any other person whatever. WM. McSHERRY.

In publishing the above card we do not wish to be understood as favoring the cause of Mr. Keyser, or any other candidate, for any office. As we have said heretofore, our desire is that each candidate shall have a fair and unprejudiced chance for nomination. Let the electioneering be done, as true Democrats, desiring the good of the party and the overthrow of Radicalism, would do it. We would just add that we know Mr. McSherry personally, and that he is a gentleman of honor, a Democrat of the straitest sect, and he held the office of Assessor of Internal Revenue as a Democrat and resigned it as soon as Grant was inaugurated.

Sewing Machines.

THE

SEWING MACHINE!

Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. This Machine uses a straight needle, makes the LOCK STITCH (alike on both sides), has a self-adjusting tension, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, seam, built, tuck, ruffle, and gather; and will work equally well on silk, linen, woolen, or cotton goods, with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE

Warranted for Five Years!

Our Agents will be supplied with duplicate parts of the Machine, in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Howe, and Florence Machines. It has the Under-feed, like the best of high-priced Machines, and is the only low-priced Shuttle Machine in the market that has this feed. We are enabled to sell a first-class SHUTTLE MACHINE at a very low price, on account of its Simplicity, and consequent low cost of Manufacturing, in comparison with Complicated Machines.

AGENTS.

We wish to arrange with Agents, male or female, to represent the American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in each State, County, and Town in the United States and Ontario. Extra inducements to Experienced Agents. For full particulars, as to Salary or Commission, address

G. V. N. ANDREWS,

General Ag't,

N. B.—For the benefit of our Agents we have arranged with parties who have goods suitable for Sewing Machine Agents to sell. We will send BOOK OF SAMPLES and full particulars on receipt of one red stamp. Address G. V. N. ANDREWS, General Agent, Detroit, Mich. nov6y1

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either Silk, Twist, Linen or Cotton Thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15, '69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking
